THE COURT REPORT

Damon Franklin, 20, of the 200 block of G Street, N.E., was sentenced before the District of Columbia Superior Court Judge John H. Bayly, Jr. on November 10, 2005, to 16 years and eight months of incarceration for his role in the July 13, 2003, brutal beating of Carl Francis Wellman, Jr., then 29, which resulted in Mr. Wellman's death on August 8, 2003. Franklin was the last of three co-defendants to be sentenced in the case, following a July 2005 trial in which a jury convicted Franklin and co-defendant Akande Johnson, 23, of the 700 block of 11th Street, N.E., of Second Degree Murder While Armed, and Walter Clark, 20, of the 1800 block of Independence Avenue, S.E., of Involuntary Manslaughter. Judge Bayly previously sentenced Johnson to 15 years of incarceration on October 14, 2005. Clark received eight years and four months of incarceration on October 3, 2005. (Case No. F-6151-03; PSA 101)

The government's evidence at trial showed that in the early morning hours of July 13, 2003, Johnson, Franklin and Clark, all attended a cabaret held at a church in Southeast Washington, D.C. Also at that cabaret was the decedent, Carl Wellman, who was a barber at Hillman's Barbershop on H Street, N.E. At some point during that night, a fight broke out in the church basement. During that fight, Johnson was struck by an unknown individual. Also during that fight, a friend of Franklin and Clark was injured when he was struck with a bottle by an unknown person.

Later that night, sometime after leaving the cabaret, Carl Wellman drove to the 600 block of 10th Street, N.E., to drop off friends after the evening out. As soon as Wellman drove up, Johnson, Franklin, and Clark, who were already present in the block, walked toward Wellman's car. Johnson, who had been a customer of Wellman, confronted Wellman, who was still seated in the driver's seat, demanding to know if Wellman hit him at the cabaret. Wellman got out of the car and said he did not hit Johnson. Clark, who was standing nearby, then approached Wellman and threw a single punch, striking Wellman in the face. Wellman fell to the ground. With Wellman on the ground, Johnson and Franklin began kicking and stomping on him.

Eyewitness testimony at the trial established that Johnson and Franklin repeatedly kicked and stomped Wellman on his head and upper body, and that Wellman initially attempted to defend himself by trying to crawl and pull himself from the ground back into his car. The assault finally came to an end when a witness yelled at the defendants to stop. The defendants left the scene as a group. Wellman, who was at that point unconscious, was transported to Howard University Hospital by a friend, where he was admitted to the surgical intensive care unit. Over the next three weeks, Wellman remained at the hospital in a semi-vegetative state, until his death from his injuries on August 8, 2005.

Paul Shorter, 40, of the 500 block of H Street, N.E., was sentenced before the District of Columbia Superior Court Judge Rhonda Reid-Winston on November 21, 2005, to 39 years of incarceration, after conviction by jury of First Degree Felony Murder, First Degree Burglary, Mayhem, and Robbery, in connection with the beating death of a senior citizen during a robbery in May 2003. (Case No. F-0022-04; PSA 101)

According to the government's evidence, on May 17, 2003, the defendant was trespassing inside of 461 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. This address is a D.C. Housing Authority Residence, specifically reserved for senior citizens and people with medical, physical or mental disabilities. The defendant went to the apartment of the victim, Odell Keys, with one of the residents of the building who was physically and mentally handicapped. That resident let the defendant into Mr. Keys' apartment. While inside the apartment, the defendant beat Mr. Keys into unconsciousness and stole his television, which he later sold for five rocks of crack cocaine. As a result of the defendant's actions, Mr. Keys lapsed into a coma and never regained consciousness. He died five months later as a result of his injuries. He was 71 years old at the time.

Joshua E. Ross, 21, of the Trinidad Neighborhood in Northeast, was convicted on November 16, 2005, of seven charges stemming from a drive-by shooting of a car filled with young women, including First Degree Premeditated Murder while Armed with aggravating circumstances, two counts of Assault with Intent to Kill while Armed, three counts of Possession of a Firearm during a Crime of Violence and one count of Carrying a Pistol without a License. He will be sentenced before the District of Columbia Superior Court Judge John H. Bayly, Jr. on January 27, 2006. Ross faces a mandatory minimum sentence of 70 years of incarceration. (Case No. F-4799-04; PSA 103)

According to trial testimony, Ross was a member of a Trinidad gang that had been in a long-standing street war with a gang from the 21st Street and Maryland Avenue neighborhood. On the night of July 24, 2004, a 19 years old girl sat in her parked car in the 1400 block of F Street, N.E., with a 20 years old female friend and 15 years old Myesha Lowe, an honor student who had just finished the ninth grade at Hine Junior High School. The girls saw a suspicious car with black tinted windows drive by their car several times. The evidence showed that Ross was in the front passenger seat armed with a 9mm semi-automatic pistol, a fellow gang member was in the back seat armed with a .40 semi-automatic pistol and wearing a black mask over his face, and a third individual was driving.

The evidence showed that the men believed that the 19 years old girl's baby's father was responsible for the murder of one of their fellow gang members. On its final lap of the girls' car, the dark car pulled up next to the driver's side of girl's car, and Ross and a second gang member opened fire on the car, firing more than 20 shots into the vehicle. Although two of the girls dove to the floor of the car in time to avoid being shot, one of the bullets hit Myesha Lowe in her head and killed her. After the surviving victims identified Ross, the police arrested him four days later. He subsequently confessed to the shooting, but claimed that he tried to halt the shooting when he realized there were females in the car.

On November 8, 2005, Defendants Shawn Gray, 33 and Leonard Johnson, 28, was found guilty in Superior Court of Conspiracy to Defraud the D.C. Government and several weapons charges for their roles in a shooting which they planned and executed while the two were inmates at the D.C. Jail. The men face up to 12 years of incarceration at sentencing, which is scheduled for January 3, 2006 before the Honorable Rhoda Reid Winston (Case No. F-2253-04; PSA 107).

According to the government's evidence, in the fall of 2003, the defendants, Shawn Gray and Leonard Johnson, were inmates in the Southwest-3 cellblock of the Central Detention Facility, also known as the D.C. Jail, which is run by the D.C. Department of Corrections. During that time, Shawn Gray smuggled the gun into the prison after another person threw a package containing the gun from an area near a public street outside the jail to a ledge over a door in a wall outside the recreation yard. Gray retrieved the gun from inside the recreation area by climbing the door and pulling the package from the ledge and through some bars. He then secreted the package in his prison jumpsuit for transport back to his cell. Gray then stored the handgun used in the shooting in a mop closet in the jail. That same fall, the defendants, along with two other inmates, named Frederick Robinson and Jamal Jefferson, each agreed to be "victims" of a shooting inside the jail for the expressed purpose of suing the District of Columbia government and the District of Columbia Department of Corrections. The four agreed that each would be shot and thereafter would lie to investigators by saying that an unknown gunman had shot them while they were smoking marijuana in a cell. Thereafter, each planned to file a lawsuit based on that fraudulent version of the shooting.

On December 20, 2003, at approximately 1:45 p.m., Shawn Gray, Leonard Johnson, Jamal Jefferson and Frederick Robinson, gathered in Jefferson's cell. The four decided to use Jefferson's cell because it was the furthest from the guard station in the cellblock. Once all four were inside the cell, they shut the cell door and stuffed towels and other items in the small opening in the door to muffle the noise of the gunshots. Shawn Gray then covered his hands with rubber cleaning gloves and with socks into which he had previously cut finger holes. Gray then retrieved a small .25 caliber semi-automatic handgun from under a mattress in the cell where moments before he had previously placed it. Pursuant to their prior agreement, Leonard Johnson and Frederick Robinson consented and allowed Shawn Gray to shoot each of them once; Leonard Johnson in the upper right shoulder area and Frederick Robinson in the upper right arm. Gray also shot himself in the right calf. Despite the prior agreement, after seeing two others shot, Jamal Jefferson told Shawn Gray that he no longer wanted to participate in the plan and did not wish to be shot; nevertheless Shawn Gray shot Jamal Jefferson in the right knee.

After the shooting, Frederick Robinson, and Leonard Johnson ran out of the cell. Shawn Gray crawled out of the cell and placed the handgun in a nearby trashcan. Jamal Jefferson dragged himself out of the cell on his stomach. The four injured inmates reported the shooting to the guards, who then locked down all cells. The four injured inmates were then transported to the infirmary and eventually the hospital for treatment. In their initial interviews with investigators, each of the four stated that an unknown gunman had been responsible for the shooting.

In returning the verdicts, the jury found Shawn Gray and Leonard Johnson guilty of Conspiracy to Defraud the D.C. Government, Carrying a Pistol Without a License, Carrying a Dangerous Weapon, Possession of an Unregistered Firearm and Unlawful Possession of Ammunition. The jury found both defendants not guilty of Assault with a Dangerous Weapon on Jamal Jefferson and the related charge of Possession of a Firearm During the Commission of a Crime of Violence or Dangerous Offense. Jamal Jefferson and Frederick Robinson each had entered pleas of guilty prior to the trial.

On November 7, 2005, Defendant Ronald Outlaw, 20, of Oxon Hill, Maryland, was sentenced by Superior Court Judge Rafael Diaz to 13 years in prison for injuring two women and two police officers in two separate crashes as he was fleeing from the police. The defendant pled guilty on August 18, 2005, to one count of felony fleeing a law enforcement officer, one count of assault on a police officer, three counts of assault with a dangerous weapon, two counts of felony destruction of property, one count of possession of marijuana, one count of reckless driving, and one count of operating a motor vehicle without a permit. (Case No. F-223-05; PSA 103)

According to the government's evidence, officers of the United States Park Police attempted to conduct a lawful stop of a van that Outlaw was driving on January 8, 2005, near Trinidad Street, NE. Instead of stopping the van, Outlaw led the officers on a high-speed chase through the city. In the process, Outlaw ran several stop signs and drove on the wrong side of the road. When he reached 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, he hit a police cruiser that was trying to get out of his way. The two officers inside the car suffered non-life threatening injuries.

Outlaw then sped down East Capitol Street and slammed into another car containing two elderly women. Both of the victims suffered significant injuries to their neck, back and hips. The crash also caused over $7,000 worth of damage to their car. Instead of stopping at that point, Outlaw continued to flee from the police despite significant damage to his van including two flat tires. Police officers eventually boxed in the van. Outlaw got out of the van and continued to flee on foot. Several officers of the Metropolitan Police Department and the U.S. Park Police ran after him. While he was running, Outlaw threw a bag of marijuana into a sewer drain. Police officers eventually found Outlaw hiding under a car and arrested him.

DISTRICT COURT CASES

Robert Nicholas Spadaro, 68, a former associate professor most recently of Hawaii, was sentenced on November 10, 2005, in United States District Court before the Honorable John D. Bates, to 15½ years in prison on Interstate Stalking, Assault with Intent to Kill while Armed, and related firearm charges. In June 2005, a federal jury found Spadaro guilty of the charges, which stemmed from Spadaro's 28-year obsession with the person he presumed was responsible for denying his bid for a political appointment during the Ford Administration.

According to the government's evidence, in 1975, while Spadaro was a Visiting Associate Professor at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, he applied to the White House Personnel Office for a political appointment with the Department of Health Education and Welfare (HEW). On July 11, 1975, Spadaro was notified by the White House Personnel Office that he was not receiving a political appointment. On August 7, 1975, Spadaro wrote to the head of the White House Personnel Office complaining about the July 11th rejection letter and protesting that he was clearly qualified for a deputy assistant secretary position or the equivalent. On September 16, 1975, another rejection letter was sent to Spadaro.

Unsatisfied with the White House's refusal to offer him a political appointment, Spadaro wrote directly to President Ford on November 15, 1975. In his letter to the President, Spadaro implied that his situation was analogous to Watergate. Spadaro asserted that this incident brought the entire Presidential appointee system into question and, oddly enough, urged the President to make the incident known to the Senate. Spadaro eventually attempted to bring legal action against President Ford in China for, among other things, damages stemming from political harassment.

These events triggered a 28-year obsession with the then head of the White House Personnel Office, whom he deemed responsible for his not receiving an appointment. During this time, Spadaro utilized connections at the Social Security Administration and IRS to stalk the former head of the White House Personnel Office and his wife.

In the Fall of 2003, Spadaro approached a neighbor in Hawaii who was a retired New York Homicide Detective and asked him to use his police connections to help track the former head of the White House Personnel Office. Although the neighbor refused to utilize any connections to assist Spadaro in his search, he did assist him in utilizing "www.google.com" to access information about the former director. The neighbor refused Spadaro's requests for additional help. Suspicious of Spadaro's motives, he jokingly warned Spadaro that if Spadaro was planning on taking the former director out, he did not want anything to do with the plot.

In late September 2003, Spadaro terminated his lease in Hawaii, cleaned out his apartment, and left without leaving a forwarding address. On September 30, 2003, Spadaro traveled from Hawaii to Lansdowne, Pennsylvania, which was the home of a longtime friend. While reading portions of Spadaro's personal memoir – in which Spadaro wrote about killing the former head of the White House Personnel Office – Spadaro's longtime friend counseled him against taking revenge against people associated with the Ford White House.

Spadaro subsequently departed his friend's residence in Pennsylvania and arrived at the Holiday Inn Downtown, located at 1155 14th Street, NW, Washington, D.C., on October 27, 2003. On October 31, 2003, during daytime hours, Spadaro had his first face-to-face encounter with the former head of the White House Personnel Office in front of the Watergate apartments, at which time Spadaro approached him and represented himself to be a real estate investor. Spadaro called the former director by name and asked him if he was affiliated with "Hudson Valley Partners." Spadaro's casual attire (including a colorful t-shirt) was out of character with the high-end real estate clientele that the former director was accustomed to representing. The former director made polite small talk with the stranger and left.

That evening, Halloween night, Spadaro showed up at the former director's residence located on Woodland Drive in NW, Washington, D.C., wearing a hockey mask and holding a shopping bag filled with bags of candy. When the former director answered the door, Spadaro claimed that he was looking for a party at this residence. When the former asked the man to identify himself, Spadaro announced himself as "Hannibal Lechter." Once the movie reference registered with the former director, he asked the stranger at his door to provide his true name, at which point Spadaro offered a generic name such as "Smith" or "Jones." The former director informed Spadaro that there was no party at his address. Spadaro then handed the former director a bag of candy and walked away. As the former director followed Spadaro (to return the bag of candy), he noticed that Spadaro walked with a limp that was indicative of somebody who suffered partial paralysis on one side of his body.

On November 2, 2003, Spadaro returned to the former director's residence in a taxicab. Spadaro got out of the back seat of the cab just as the former director exited the front door of his house. The former director walked directly to his car, which was parked out front in a circular driveway. When he began to drive away, he noticed Spadaro limping across his driveway in his direction. The former director immediately recognized Spadaro's distinct gait from Halloween night and rolled down the window of his car to see what Spadaro wanted. Spadaro was carrying a briefcase and announced that he had something for the former director. Confused by Spadaro's presence, the former director informed Spadaro that he did not need anything and drove away. Spadaro then removed what appeared to be a .38 revolver from his briefcase and fired two shots at the former director as he drove away. Both shots missed. Spadaro was arrested later that day.

Tonette R. Cooks, 30, of Mt. Ranier, Maryland, a former cashier at the Bureau of Traffic Adjudication at 65 K Street, NE, was sentenced on November 15, 2005, by U.S. District Judge Gladys Kessler, to a term of 18 months in prison to be followed by one year of supervised release. The court also ordered Cooks to pay $200,000 in restitution. Cooks and Sherry J. McKnight, an individual who brought "customers" to Cooks, pleaded guilty in October of 2003 to an indictment charging the two of them with federal bribery in connection with a ticket-fixing bribery scheme at the D.C. Adjudication Services Branch.

The District of Columbia's Adjudication Services Branch had an office located at 65 K Street, NE. Persons who have been fined for various traffic or parking violations could pay those fines in person at that location. OFT employed six tellers who worked at the 65 K Street location, whose job it was to accept payment of the fines, by cash, check, or credit card. Those fines were recorded in a computer system maintained by OFT. Once the fines were paid, the individual's Department of Motor Vehicles' (DMV) record, reflecting the parking or traffic violations, was cleared.

The investigation revealed that Cooks and McKnight were involved in a scheme where Cooks manipulated the DMV computer system to clear unpaid fines in exchange for bribe money. The customers who paid the bribes to Cooks and McKnight were given computerized printouts as receipts, which indicated that the tickets had been paid in full. As a result of the scheme, the District of Columbia government lost between $200,000 and $400,000 in revenue.

McKnight was sentenced pursuant to her guilty plea on April 28, 2004, by Judge Kessler to 46 months of imprisonment, followed by three years of supervised release and she was ordered to pay $200,000 of restitution.

Another individual, David Johnson, also brought customers to Cooks to have tickets fixed in return for payments to Cooks. Johnson, 35, of the 4900 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, who was a former employee of the D.C. Public School's Transportation Division, pled guilty on October 12, 2005, before Judge Kessler to operating a similar bribery scheme with Cooks. Johnson is scheduled to be sentenced in January of next year by Judge Kessler.

Rosa Chavez, 28, of the 1400 block of Oglethorpe Street, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on November 14, 2005, on her prior guilty plea in United States District Court to receipt of bribes by a public official. Chavez worked for five years at the DMV office located at 301 C Street, NW, until February of this year. Chavez was sentenced by District Court Judge John Garrett Penn to 24 months of imprisonment, to be followed by three years of supervised release.

As part of her guilty plea, Chavez acknowledged that, beginning in early 2002, she began selling fraudulent drivers' licenses in exchange for cash. As a clerk at the DMV, she was responsible for processing applications submitted by individuals seeking to obtain District of Columbia drivers' licenses. However, Chavez agreed to input false claims into the DMV computer in order to create and issue fraudulent drivers' licenses in exchange for the applicants paying her between $250 to $400 per license. Initially, Chavez issued approximately three to four fraudulent drivers' licenses each week, but this number increased significantly over time. During the course of the bribery scheme, applicants seeking fraudulent licenses paid out more than $70,000 in bribes for Chavez to produce the fraudulent drivers' licenses.

Kyra T. Walker, 27, of the 600 block of Longfellow, NE, Washington, D.C., pled guilty on November 15, 2005, to accepting cash bribes to produce titles and registrations for motor vehicles, which, in some cases, she knew were stolen. Walker will be sentenced by U.S. District Judge Richard W. Roberts on January 30, 2006, and is facing 12-18 months of incarceration under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines.

As part of her guilty plea, Walker acknowledged that, beginning in November 2002 through May 2004, while employed as a DMV clerk, Walker accepted bribes to produce titles and registrations for motor vehicles and to assist others working at the DMV to do the same. Walker agreed to do this although she knew the vehicles were stolen, or did not have insurance, or had other problems associated with them. In some cases, Walker operated as a “runner” or “go-between,” by accepting the bribes and fraudulent documentation for vehicles that applicants wanted to register and delivering the payments and paperwork to another DMV employee so that DMV employee could enter the information from the paperwork into the DMV computer to create “clean” titles and registrations for the vehicles. Walker took a portion of the money paid by the applicants for this service. Walker’s share of the bribe money varied from $200 to $300 or more per transaction.

Walker also told law enforcement that the middlemen with whom she worked mostly dealt in expensive, newer model vehicles. For example, Walker stated that she could recall acting as a go-between for another DMV employee who issued titles and registrations for these middlemen on approximately five to ten Mercedes Benz automobiles. Walker stated that, on average, a middleman paid $1,000 per vehicle for title and registration; though Walker stated that she would take $200 to $300 for each vehicle.

Walker also admitted to “helping out” car dealers who did not want to take vehicles through inspections, which they knew they would not pass. Additionally, dealers brought her paperwork for salvaged vehicles, including from Maryland, in order to receive “clean” District of Columbia titles, that is, titles without reference to any problems with the vehicles. By obtaining a “clean” title, the dealers were able to sell the vehicles for more money. Typically, the dealers would provide Walker applications for the vehicles, but would not provide other necessary documentation, including proof of insurance. The dealers on occasion gave Walker money and other gifts.

Shola Ayeni, 46, of Stafford, Virginia, was found guilty on November 15, 2005, by a federal jury sitting in the United States District Court, of conspiracy, wire fraud, federal program fraud, and first degree fraud. When Ayeni is sentenced on January 27, 2006, by the Honorable Richard W. Roberts, he faces a term of imprisonment of up to 30 years and a $500,000 fine. Ayeni was first tried and convicted on these charges in December 2002, but that conviction was reversed in June 2004, by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

Ayeni was an attorney whom the Superior Court of the District of Columbia periodically appointed and paid to represent indigent defendants in criminal cases. Adults and juveniles were tried in the District of Columbia Superior Court for violations of District of Columbia criminal law. Pursuant to Superior Court Rule of Criminal Procedure 113, witnesses who testified in Superior Court criminal trials, for the government or for the defense, were entitled to witness fees. Witnesses received Certificates for Emergency Payment of Witness Fees or witness vouchers entitling them to $40 per day for court appearances.

To obtain vouchers for their witnesses, defense lawyers were required to present photographic identification and a bar identification card and sign a log book maintained by the Superior Court Budget and Finance Division in Superior Court Building A. Each witness voucher contained a section entitled “Verification,” which stated “... the claimant attended as a witness in the above entitled case. I certify that to the best of my knowledge no prior certification for attendance on this date has been made by any attorney and that the claimant is entitled to a witness fee for the date and time claimed.” Lawyers were required to sign this verification. Voucher claimants redeemed these vouchers by presenting them to the Superior Court Budget and Finance Division, in the H. Carl Moultrie I Courthouse. The vouchers contained a section entitled “Certificate,” which each claimant was required to sign and which stated that the claimant certified that he or she “was compelled to appear in this court as a witness for the parties as indicated above.” The Superior Court Budget and Finance Division issued checks to the claimants. Superior Court relied on the lawyers’ signed “Verification” and the claimants’ signed, “Certificate” and did not independently inquire whether voucher claimants actually appeared in court as witnesses. Lawyers acted on behalf of Superior Court in ensuring that witness vouchers were given only to people who had been compelled to appear in Superior Court for testimony.

According to the government’s evidence, between October 1998 and February 2001, Ayeni and Troy Robinson and others knowingly devised a scheme to defraud Superior Court. Robinson was a criminal investigator who worked with Ayeni. On November 13, 2002, Robinson pleaded guilty before Judge Roberts to conspiracy, wire fraud, federal program fraud, and first-degree fraud and was sentenced to a term of one month in prison.

The scheme operated as follows: Between October 1998 and February 2001, Ayeni would obtain blank witness vouchers from the Superior Court Budget and Finance Division and would give many of these vouchers to Robinson. In order to arrange a time and location to give Robinson these witness vouchers, Ayeni would use his cellular telephone to call Robinson. Robinson would then give witness vouchers to others, many of whom were Robinson’s family members or friends. Voucher recipients would sign the vouchers, indicating that they had been compelled to appear in court to testify on specified dates, when, in truth, the voucher recipients did not appear in court to testify as witnesses on those dates and were thus not entitled to receive witness vouchers. The voucher recipients would sign the vouchers they had received from Ayeni and Robinson and would present the vouchers to the Superior Court Budget and Finance Division, which then issued checks to the voucher recipients. The voucher recipients would cash these checks. The voucher recipients would give a portion of the money they had obtained from these checks to Robinson. Robinson would then give some or all of the money he received from the voucher recipients to Ayeni. In order to arrange a time and location to collect this money from Robinson, Ayeni often used his cellular telephone to call Robinson.

Ayeni and Robinson, and the voucher recipients obtained approximately $56,320.00 from Superior Court by receiving payment for approximately 1,408 fraudulent witness vouchers.

Willie Charles Anderson, Jr., 57, of Accokeek, Maryland, pled guilty on November 15, 2005, before United States District Judge Richard Leon to one count of bribery for receiving bribe payments as a public official in connection with his duties as a service provider for the Department of Motor Vehicles in Washington, D.C. Anderson will be sentenced on February 17, 2006. He faces up to 15 years in prison under the statute.

According to the factual proffer, Willie Charles Anderson, Jr. operated an alcohol education program called American Recovery Management Strategies, LLC, in the District of Columbia. That program was on a referral list of several programs to which DMV would refer drunk drivers to receive treatment as a condition to obtain reinstatement of their driver's licenses. Upon completion of the program, the service providers would certify to DMV that treatment was satisfactorily completed. DMV would rely upon that certification to reinstate the driver's license of convicted drunk drivers.

Between on or about November 5 and December 22, 2004, Anderson accepted bribes from two separate undercover FBI agents, posing as convicted drunk drivers, in return for providing them and DMV with certifications that they completed his program even though Anderson did not provide any treatment and or education whatsoever.

Kimberly Howard, 26, of the 700 block of Gresham Place, NW, Washington, D.C., pled guilty on November 17, 2005, in U.S. District Court before the Honorable Henry H. Kennedy, Jr., to conspiracy to commit credit card fraud. Howard is scheduled to be sentenced on February 17, 2006, and could face 12 to 18 months in prison under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines as a result of the conviction.

According to the government's evidence, between August 2003 and January 2004, Howard stole receipts containing credit card numbers and expiration dates ("victim information") from a Magruder's grocery store, located at 5626 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. After obtaining the receipts, Howard provided the victim information to a co-conspirator in exchange for money. The co-conspirator would then identify individuals who were actively renovating homes and in need of building supply materials and home appliances. One or more co-conspirators used the victim information to purchase merchandise from stores located outside the District of Columbia and requested that the purchased merchandise be delivered to various addresses within the District of Columbia.

It was a further part of the conspiracy that upon receipt of the merchandise, the recipients of the merchandise would pay a co-conspirator a cash amount equal to approximately one-third the retail value of the merchandise received. In addition, a co-conspirator would pay other co-conspirators a portion of the cash received from the recipients. Howard, along with her co-conspirators, obtained and used credit card information from more than 50 individuals and purchased or attempted to purchase merchandise valued in excess of $200,000.
